Who we are looking for and how to apply

The firm welcomes applications for its internship programme from undergraduate and postgraduate law students. Students who have completed at least two years of law school and who intend to apply for training contracts in the following year will have priority. The firm looks for students who have the following qualities: (1) zest for legal practice (2) innovative and creative mindset, and (3) a can-do attitude.

If you are interested and willing to really learn something about legal practice, send your CV/Resume (with subjects and grades) with a short cover letter indicating (1) preferred area(s) of practice and (2) preferred dates to recruit@oonbazul.com.

It is highly advisable to apply early because internship places are limited and applications are competitive.
